Around the Nation

Rubin Accuses FBI of Raid

3/7/70

NEW YORK—Jerry Rubin, one of the defendants in the "Chicago Seven" conspiracy trial, says an FBI agent stormed into his apartment without a search warrant.

The FBI had "no comment."

Free on bail pending appeal of his conviction and five-month jail sentence, Rubin said an agent identifying humself as Ron McHaffey broke into his Greenwich Village apartment Thursday and after a 10-minute search, vowed: "We're going to come back and tear this place apart."

Rubin appeared yesterday in Chicago before Cook County Magistrate John J. Moran who continued state charges of resisting arrest and disorderly conduct still pending against the Yippie leader since the 1968 Democratic National Convention.

TR FOR ADD ONE . . . . .

Goldberg Hits Trial

In a speech at the Columbia University Law School, former Supreme Court Justice Arthur J. Goldberg assailed the contempt convictions of the "Chicago Seven" by Federal Judge Julius J. Hoffman as unconstitutional. Goldberg said the contempt charges should have beer submitted to a separat judge and jury.

mother's interests are supe ior to those of an unqui ened embryo whether embryo is mere protopl as the plaintiff states human being, as Wis statutes declare."

The ruling was down in a case inve Sidney G. Babbitz Milwaukee phys living in Florida.

Two A-Tes

LAS VEG clear test sh under the d Nevada Te northwest c

The At mission an expl than 20 radiati ther test, t

Th nint sho yes

N